TEACHERS CREDIT UNION EXPLAINED IN PUBLICATION

ARTICLE BY KELLEY GIVES DETAILED ACCOUNT OF THE NEW PLAN.

1% INTEREST RATE

Northwest Missouri Teachers to Benefit From Loan Plan Involving Short Term Loans.

Teachers in Northwest Missouri are solving their own financial problems. They have adopted the Credit Union Plan, which provides an excellent means of saving and makes it possible for them to protect themselves from paying exorbitant rates of interest when obtaining loans.

Present day life demands credit. Without credit an individual finds himself considerably handicapped. No school teacher of Northwest Missouri in need of credit should be obliged to go to usurious money lenders for their loans. Teachers should also accumulate a substantial savings against retirement and should know how to get the maximum in service and protection out of earnings.

Law Sanctions High Interest Rates

It must be remembered that the laws of nearly half our states permit the licensed money lender to charge from 36 to 42 per cent on loans of $100 and less, and that this rate is justified by the fact that, if he is not permitted to charge from 36 to 42 per cent, the business will be done by unlicensed lenders who charge rates so high as to make 42 per cent seem low by comparison. A survey made by the Twentieth Century Fund indicates that the total business done by the licensed lenders is approximately half a billion dollars a year or more and the business done by the unlicensed lenders approximates three-quarters of a billion dollars a year or more, making the grand total of loans from 42 per cent up reach the magnificent figure of over a billion and a quarter dollars a year.

It must be remembered by school teachers that the reason the lenders do business with school teachers is for two reasons. Teachers are honest and will repay their loans and they constitute a highly preferred class of risk. Often, teachers can be easily imposed upon; they are proud, inclined to be timid, and as class thoughtless and easily exploited in money matters.

Why Small Loan Companies Like Teachers' Business

Why do the high rate lenders like to do business with school teachers? For two reasons. Teachers are honest and will repay their loans and they constitute a highly preferred class of risk. Often, teachers can be easily imposed upon; they are proud, inclined to be timid, and as class thoughtless and easily exploited in money matters.

Springfield, Mo.—The Cape Girardeau Teachers took a firm hold on second place in the M. I. A. A. football game by defeating the Springfield Teachers last Friday 22 to 13.

Cape made a touchdown in the first end when Popp took the ball over, and another in the second quarter on Pett's pass to Pritchard. Blanton fumbled Berry behind the goal for a safety in the third period in which he also scored a touchdown.

Springfield scored a touchdown early in the fourth period on a long pass and then's 35-yard thrust off tackle. Berry raced 80 yards through a ten field for the Bear's other touchdown.

WIFE OF FACULTY MEMBER INJURED IN AUTO WRECK

The car of C. James Velle, director of the College Conservatory of Music here was badly damaged, and Mrs. Velle was slightly injured Monday evening on federal highway No. 71, north of Savannah, when a motorist drove his car out on the highway from a side road and collided into the Velle car. Mr. Velle was driving. He said that the other car had failed to stop before venturing out on the highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Velle were on their way home from St. Joseph where they had been called to the bedside of Mrs. Mrs. Velle's father, Rev. A. P. Hurst who is ill in a St. Joseph hospital. Rev. Hurst had taken ill shortly after coming to Maryville from his home in Chattanooga, Tenn.

INTRAMURAL PROGRAM UNDER WAY IN FIVE FIELDS

COACH STALCUP ANNOUNCES INTERCLASS AND INTER-ORGANIZATION TOURNAMENTS TO BEGIN SOON

NO VARSITY PLAYERS

Individual Medals and Class Trophies to Be Awarded Winners in Various Divisions

An all school intramural program has been arranged to take effect at the beginning of the winter term, according to a statement by Wilbur Stalcup this week. Chances are that the program will get under way sooner if the classes and organizations file applications early enough. No varsity man will be eligible for competition in these contests. The following events will be open:

1. Interclass basketball: A plaque will be awarded to the winner and will be placed in the trophy case in the gym. Probably this plaque will be engraved from year to year with the class winners name.

2. Inter-organization basketball: Individual awards will be presented to the members of the winning team.

3. Volley ball: Open to all campus organizations. An award to be presented to the winning team.

4. Swimming: Open to men and women. Individual medals will be awarded in the following classes:

Diving.
Flutter Relays.
160 Relay.
40 yard Free Style.
Under water plunge (distance...)

5. Ping Pong: Doubles and singles open to all students. Awards will be presented winners.

This is the first time in the recent history of intramurals that medals and trophies have been awarded to the winners. It is also the first time that Ping Pong has made its appearance in the intramural ranks.

JOE BENSON ILL

Joe Benson, football and basketball player who was seriously injured in the Pittsburg game, has been removed to his home in Independence, Mo. after a short illness here that has developed into pneumonia. Vertebrae in Benson's neck were cracked while carrying the ball against the Gorillas. A cold during the early part of last week caused his removal to his home.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY WOMEN WILL PRESENT PLAY

MISS DOW WILL DIRECT AND PLAY LEADING ROLE IN COMEDY.

Sir James M. Barrie's, "Quality Street" Has Many Faculty Members in Cast

The Maryville branch of the American Association of University Women, which awards annually a loan scholarship of $150, to the highest ranking young woman of the junior class, is presenting on the evening of November 23, Sir James M. Barrie's "Quality Street" as a benefit performance for the fellowship fund.

The comedy is being directed by Miss Blanche Dow, chairman of the foreign language department. Miss Dow will appear in the principal role of Miss Phoebe Throssle, the young lady of the ringlets who looks like a garden. Her lover, Valentine Brown, who is so dashing, is played by Mrs. Jack Rowlett. Phoebe's eldest sister, Miss Susan, who can not understand algebra, is Dr. Anna Painter. Miss Laura Hawkins, Mrs. Forrest Gilliam, and Miss Chloe Millikan are the inquisitive spinsters who live "across the street". Miss Nell Hudson is the burly Recruiting Sergeant; Miss Mercedes Weiss is Ensign Blades, who fought at Waterloo; and Lieutenant Spicer, "so slight and shallow", is Miss Mary Jackson. Patty, the maid, is Mrs. Virgil Rathbun. Miss Charlotte Parrot, whom Miss Susan calls a "goose", is Mrs. Edward Condon. Harriet, the forsaken one at the dances, is Miss Ruth Burcham. The children of "the school" are as follows: Georgy, Miss Elizabeth Hull; William Smith, Miss Frances Holliday; Isabella, Miss Minnie James; Miss Beveridge, Miss Katherine Helwig; Arthur Wellesley Tomson, Mrs. Orville C. Miller; and other children, Mrs. Henry Blanchard, Miss Birdie Lemaster and Miss Margaret Maxwell.

With such a distinguished cast, "Quality Street", famed partly by Maude Adam's interpretation of the role of Phoebe, promises to be a sparkling comedy and a delightful entertainment. Those who were privileged to be guests of the A. A. U. W. at a private presentation in 1930 of Barrie's "The Old Lady Shows Her Medals", also directed by Miss Dow, will never forget the successful playing of the charwomen by Miss Laura Hawkins, Dr. Anna M. Painter, and Mrs. Jack Rowlett who again play leading parts in "Quality Street".

Tickets are on sale by all members of the association at the very reasonable rate of fifty cents for the general public and thirty-five cents for student admission. These tickets may be exchanged for reserved seats later at Kuch's without charge.

FRESHMAN ELECT

After several weeks of disorganization the Freshman class has elected officers. The election from start to finish was a tangle and three votes had to be taken in order to decide the winners.

Paul Foster of Maryville was elected president. Mildred Clardy of Maryville won the vice-presidency. In the secretary-treasurer race Loree Lindsey of Maryville won from Dean Olsen of Shenandoah. The other candidates in the contest were: Presidency, George Zakoura, Ossawatimie, Kansas; vice-presidency, Wayne Turner, Maryville.

Don't forget the Dance in West Library Saturday Night. Bring Your Activity Ticket.

MARYVILLE CHANCES ARE GOOD FOR VICTORY OVER THE UN-DEFEATED KIRKSVILLE TEACHERS

MOTHERS OF PUPILS IN KINDERGARTEN ENTERTAINED AT TEA

Miss Millikan entertained the kindergarten mothers with a tea Monday afternoon from 3 to 5. She was assisted by Lucille Lackey, Dorothy Glenn, Irene Smith, Virginia Miller and Edra Keplar.

Miss Millikan talked to the mothers on the importance of the kindergarten on the physical, mental and social life of their children. This was followed by an open discussion by the mothers of this subject.

PEP RALLY AND PARADE PLANS READY FOR GAME

PEP RALLY TONIGHT ON THE SQUARE AND PARADE TOMORROW MORNING

FIELD PARADE AT 1:45

Pep Squads and Band Expected From Kirksville in Time for Tomorrow's Parade

Extensive plans for pep rallies and parades preliminary to and during the Armistice Day football game tomorrow afternoon on the State Teachers College gridiron are underway.

The committee appointed to take charge of the plans is composed of Kurby Bovard, chairman; C. J. Merrigan, Miss Eleanor Hardin, Miss Eudora Smith, and Marvin Johnson.

Pep talks, songs and yells are placed on a program to be presented as a part of the assembly at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

An all-school parade of the downtown streets at 8 o'clock tonight is planned, Chairman Bovard said. Students are to meet on the campus and trucks which are to be loaned by the 128th field artillery of the Missouri National Guard will transport the band and students downtown. The committee reports that several novel stunts for the downtown pep demonstration Friday night is to be provided but that the nature of them would be held a secret from even the students. It will be worthwhile, the committeemen say, for townspeople to come out tonight for the parade.

A grand opening parade is to be staged on the athletic field at 1:45 o'clock Saturday afternoon with a 50-piece band, directed by Maurice Wright, leading the procession in which several hundred students will participate. The three pep organizations, Green and White Peppers, Barkatze and the Growlers, will follow the band, and then will follow the various other organizations of the college. A meeting of all organization presidents is to be called tomorrow and they will be urged by the Senate committee to organize their membership for participation in full strength in the parade. The various groups will be expected to display banners boosting the Bearcats. Several unique features are planned for the last home game of the 1933 season. Pigeons are to be released into the air at the half, and other stunts are being considered. The committee has negotiated with Battery C as to the possibility of firing a gun salute at the game.

It is reported here that the Band and pep squads from Kirksville will come with their team for the game. Preparations are being made to have them here in time for the N. R. A. parade Saturday morning. Robert McMurray, student president at Kirksville, will probably speak at the pep rally here tonight according to a telephone message earlier this week.

"NO-DATE DANCE"

Residence Hall will entertain at a "No-date dance" Friday evening following the pep rally. All college students are invited. Ten cents admission will be charged each individual not residing at the Hall. Miss Elenor Hardin is in charge.

DOPE FAVORS THE KIRKSVILLE TEAM FOR M. I. A. A. TITLE

TEAM THAT DEFEATED MISSOURI U. WILL FACE BEARCATS TOMORROW AFTERNOON

LAST HOME GAME

Rebuilt Bearcat Team May Upset Dope in Conference Battle on Home Field

The Kirksville Teachers play here tomorrow afternoon in the last home game for the Bearcats this season.

Kirksville has gone through the season undefeated. The Bearcats have not fared so well but will stand a good show Saturday to win. Men who have been out most of the season have been able to get into shape for this event.

Last year the Bearcats lost to Kirksville on the Bulldog field by a score of 6 to 0. A pass, Embre to Rhodes, gave the Bulldogs their only touchdown. It was the only Kirksville pass completed during the game but was most fatal to Bearcat chances of Victory. Both Embre and Rhode will probably be in the Kirksville lineup Saturday.

Looking back through the Missourian files one finds many interesting tales of Bearcat football history. In 1917 when the Missourian was known as the Green and White Courier, the Bulldogs won the contest 37 to 0. It was the second straight year that Maryville had failed to score in the conference. By 1918 the story had changed somewhat and the Armistice day game was played with Tarkio, who won 14 to 0. Only twice since relations have been established between Kirksville and Maryville, have the Bearcats won. In 1923 on the Kirksville field the Bearcats won on the Kirksville field and in 1931 on the Bearcat field.

Prospects for this year give the Bulldogs the edge by virtue of their record this season but with a renewed Maryville team the score may run contrary to dope.

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY DEBATE TEAM TO BE HERE NOVEMBER 18

MERRIGAN AND MORGAN WILL REPRESENT MARYVILLE IN THE DISCUSSION.

The Cambridge University debating team, now on a tour of the United States, is to debate a team of the State Teachers College here, Saturday night, November 18, it is announced at the College today. The debate is to be held in the College auditorium.

C. J. Merrigan and Edward Morgan have been selected by Orville C. Miller, chairman of the department of speech, to represent the College in the debate with Alastair Sharp and Michael Barkway who are the members of the English team chosen as representatives of the University Union Society.

A few years ago the College was visited by a debating team from Oxford University.

The question to be debated is, "Resolved, That the United States Should Adopt the Essential Features of the British System of Radio Control."

Mr. Sharp entered Clare College, Cambridge, in October, 1930. He boxed, played football, played the violin, and talked in the Union. He entered politics on the Tory side, and became chairman of the Conservative Club. He was elected a member of the Hawks' Club. Law is his profession.

Mr. Barkway entered Queen's College, Cambridge, in 1930. He took part in the

PEP RALLY TONIGHT

There will be a Pep Rally tonight at 7:30 o'clock. Meet at the gymnasium.

Be on time and come prepared for a big evening. Get a date and show up with a store of pep. Trucks will be furnished by several local agencies to haul you to the square. Show the school that you are behind it.

THUS FAR

Thus far this season the pep squads have not produced the goods, so to speak. The Green and White Peppers have tried to do their part by appearing in uniform and sharing the duties, but the Barkatze and the Growlers have been mythical organizations as far as supporting the team was concerned. Nearly every one of the groups are now uniformed and there can be no reason this week for a loafing pep organization. The Missourian makes this challenge: Every Pep Squad Member be at the field in UNIFORM and with your group. If you are, the Missourian will support your projects this year wholeheartedly, if not, then you can expect nothing from anyone who is interested in Bearcat promotion, except a razzing.

If you think that the accusation is an unjust one, perhaps you can offer an excuse for there being only (9) nine students at the gym to see the team off to Rockhurst. Nine out of seven hundred is not a disgrace. It is too low for that.

There are those pep squad members, too, who do not wear their uniforms but bring a date to the game and refuse to march at the half or take part in the team support. Such students should turn in their uniforms and their resignation with it. Those kind of backers are too weak to rely on. Either do your part or make way for those who will.

INTRAMURAL

Now for a sizzling winter of intramural sports. Coaches Davis and Stalcup have announced their program to start with the winter quarter. Contests are open in all departments except football. Even ping-pong has been added to the curriculum. Nothing in the way of sports is too rough for the local boys. It's up to you now to get out and organize a team and get it entered properly. Membership blanks are to be found elsewhere in the Missourian. Each team must be sponsored by an organization in good standing with the Student Senate. Do your part and let's have a big turnout.

DON'T BACKSLIDE NOW

After a more or less difficult football season the Bearcat team faces its last home game this year. The support of the student body has not been all that it could, nor all that it should have been. There has been lagging in the ranks. Students who go home over the week-end should pick out a week-end that has no game scheduled. There were only four home games scheduled this year and missing four days at home will not hurt anyone. There is always time to go home after the game. Peppers, Growlers and Barkatze will be looked to to do their part in leading the pep parade throughout the whole game. The faculty and student body will be expected to do their share. The hardest game of the year is in front of us tomorrow and if the team is let down now then they will have every right to let you down at the game. Waving your handkerchief at your boy friend on the bench or at your girl friend in the opposite stands doesn't help the team. ON ARMISTICE DAY WE CELEBRATE THE "VICTORY" OF 1918; LET'S DO IT THIS YEAR WITH A VICTORY OVER KIRKSVILLE. The pep rally tonight will show just where you stand, so be there. A FIGHTING BEARCAT NEVER LET'S DOWN. ARE YOU A FIGHTING BEARCAT OR A letterdowner?

Education Department

THE NATIONAL SURVEY OF SECONDARY EDUCATION

In 1928, the membership of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools proposed that a nation wide study of Secondary Education be made. In order that the study not be biased toward some special interest, the Association thought it wise that the study be made by the Government of the United States, rather than by some private foundation.

Consequently, the Congress of the United States appropriated $225,000 to be expended over a three year period, for as comprehensive study of secondary education as the funds available would permit. The following topics relating especially to the secondary school were investigated: Its organization; its curriculum; including some of the more fundamental subjects, and particularly those subjects on which a comparison could be made between the present and earlier periods; its extra-curriculum which is almost entirely new in the past 30 years; the pupil population; and administrative and supervisory problems, personal and activities.

The members of the Educational Staff were as follows:

William John Cooper, United States Commissioner of Education, Director.
Leonard V. Koos, Professor of Secondary Education, the University of Chicago, Associate Director.

Carl A. Jessen, Specialist in Secondary Education, United States Office of Education, Coordinator.

The board of Consultants, composed of outstanding educators who acted in an advisory capacity were:

H. V. Church, Superintendent, J. Sterling Morton High School, Cicero, Ill.

Ellwood P. Cubberly, Dean, School of Education, Leland Stanford University, Stanford University, Calif.

James B. Edmonson, Dean, School of Education, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Mich.

Charles H. Judd, Dean, School of Education, The University of Chicago, Chicago, Ill.

A. B. Meredith, Professor of Education, School of Education, New York University, New York, N. Y.

John H. Norton, Professor of Education, Teachers College, Columbia University, New York, N. Y.

Joseph O'Remer, Director of Instruction, Junior College Demonstration School, George Peabody College for Teachers, Nashville, Tenn.

William F. Russell, Dean, Teachers College, Columbia University, New York, N. Y.

The findings of the survey are being published by the Office of Education. A number of the publications are already off the press and are available in our college library. The list of the monographs which will be included in the entire study is given below:

"GROWLERS"

We have a tough assignment ahead of us in this game with the Kirksville aggregation next Saturday and I for one would like to see the entire student body out there on the sidelines yelling for their school until the end of the game and don't go home and talk about how badly one of the players or anyone played because at least they are out there on the field fighting for the prestige of the school and there is not a one but who will do his best to toss the much vaunted Bull-dogs for a terrific loss. Can you stay away from the game and then brag on your loyalty to the school or the team.

Remember there is going to be a rally Saturday afternoon so be there also and don't miss it for the loss of your head.

BOOKS

MAGNIFICENT OBSESSION

By

LLOYD C. DOUGLAS

"Magnificent Obsession" is an unusual fiction story. Its plot differs greatly from the common "Bestsellers" of the last few years. In reading the story, one might imagine that the author is a preacher, since the plot centers around a Bible verse, but no moral is pointed out, nor is the story told in a didactic manner.

The plot has to do with the death, by drowning, of a beloved surgeon, and the rebirth of a rich young ne'er-do-well, whose life was saved by the doctor's respirator. A great deal of the action takes place in the surgeon's hospital, where the young man gains a new perspective on life. Taught by the head matron, who delivers a small book to him which is in code, the boy deciphers the book and finds it a story of the dead surgeon's life, and the secret why he was a success, financially and socially. The young man dedicates his life to the Magnificent Obsession, and becomes a famous surgeon.

There are other interesting characters; of course, a girl, the daughter of the old surgeon, the boy's grandfather, a friend, and others.

The Magnificent Obsession gains its name from the secret contained in the little book, verse from the Bible, which is,—but read it and find out for yourself.

Lloyd C. Douglas, who lectured at the College three weeks ago, has a new novel coming out some time in November, "Precious Jeopardy."

A LESSON IN ECONOMICS

TEN MEN, A COW AND A COMPANY

Robert Quillen in The Fountain Inn Tribune.

Ten men who were financiers chipped in ten dollars each and bought a fine cow that gave ten gallons of milk every day. The milk was divided at night and each man received one gallon as his share. Soon the neighbors far and near heard about the wonderful cow and said to one another, "Think of getting a whole gallon of milk every day. What a wonderful return on a ten dollar investment. I wish I had a share in her."

When this talk was repeated to the ten men, they held a conference, and one of them said, "Let us give these people what they want. Our shares in the cow cost us ten dollars each, and we can sell other shares at the same price."

So they went to a printer and obtained one thousand sheets of paper bearing the legend: "One share in the cow." Then they sold 500 of these shares at ten dollars each, which brought them $5000, and divided the other 500 among themselves as their reward for being smart. Each man of the ten now had fifty-one shares, whereas in the beginning each had but one. But one of the ten began to worry.

"Look here," he said, "every fellow who bought a share in this cow will expect a gallon of milk tonight, and the cow gives only ten gallons. When the milk is divided into one thousand and ten parts these new shareholders won't get a spoonful. Shares will drop to nothing. We'd better unload while we can."

So the ten men went out on the street to find investors, and each of them sold the fifty shares that had been awarded to him, and thus they obtained a second $5000 to divide among themselves. But now night was drawing near, and again one of the ten began to worry.

"There will be a row at milking time," said he. "Hasten abroad and persuade each of the shareholders to sign a proxy, which is a joker authorizing you to cast as you think best the vote to which his share entitles him. Then return with the proxies and we shall do some voting."

At twilight the men met at the barn, and in their hands were one thousand signed proxies to represent the absent shareholders, and the ten were entitled to vote in their own right, for each still held his original share.

"Now," said the one who did the talking, "we must organize. This company needs a president, a treasurer, and eight vice-presidents. That gives each of us a job, and since there are ten of us and the cow gives ten gallons, it is moved and seconded that each of us receive a salary of one gallon of milk per day. All in favor say Aye."

And then they milked the cow.

BETWEEN YOU AND ME

The Kirksville Teachers' College has already announced its schedule of courses for the Winter Quarter. The Northeast Missourian, campus publication of that school, carries a complete copy of the program. Many students are aided in this aforementioned schedule, inasmuch as they can discover conflicts in plenty of time to rearrange their programs to the most advantage to themselves. Maryville students could likewise be benefited.

WATCH FOR THE COMING ANNOUNCEMENT IN THE MISSOURIAN. IT WILL INTEREST ALL OF YOU. WE WILL GIVE YOU TWENTY-TWO GUESSES AND YOU WILL STILL PROBABLY BE WRONG.

The Freshmen vote again. Nine weeks is quite a time to take to organize a class. And then to have three elections to decide the winners sounds more like the 1928 Democratic convention than a class election.

Basketball practice has started with about 35 men out. Some of the regulars are looking nicely. New men show promise of filling up the vacancies left by graduation, etc.

And I had a private session with Miss Stevenson, while Estelle put the snake in her room. . . . Surprise . . .

Have you seen the latest dance, the "Buy Rumba"? Come in some time for a lesson.

Was Godsey's date all burned up at the dance? No, but her hose were. And so Ed has some purchasing to do.

Certain of the Alpha Sigma girls are supposed to know that Captain Marr and Amos Wright are perfectly capable of choosing their own company.

The A. A. U. W. is planning to produce a play which will include several of our more notable faculty members. Twill, no doubt, be worth the price of admission to see these dignified personages take a new role for once. I for one shall probably spend my 35c and a whole evening for just that purpose.

Stalcup Holding Practice Four Times A Week For Large Squad.

The 1933-34 basketball season is getting under way. Coach Stalcup has called practice sessions for a selected group. For over a week the practices have been running on regular schedule. Stalcup will be somewhat handicapped by the loss of Bernard Cowden, captain-elect for this season. Cowden will play with the Piggly-Wiggly team of Denver. According to Coach Stalcup there will not be a new election for captaincy but a captain will be appointed for each game from the lettermen.

There are five lettermen out for practice now. Leo Praisewater, center and forward; Dale St. John, center; Hal Bird, center; Joe O'Conner, guard; and Amos Wright, guard. Other old men will report for practice at the close of the football season.

A survey of the new material finds promising candidates in Brown, Austin, Elward and Adams. Adams did not letter last year. Orville Johnson, ineligible last year, will probably be seen in the line-up this year. Johnson has shown the most promise of development thus far.

The first game this year will be with Peru Teachers, here. This game is scheduled for December 15th, the date set for Father's Day. On December 21 a tentative game has been planned with the North Dakota Teachers. Immediately after the Christmas holidays the Bearcats will meet Pat Mason's Rockhurst Hawks on the local court. This is the first basketball encounter between the two schools.

PEP SQUADS AND BAND COMING FROM KIRKSVILLE

A good delegation of rooters from Northeast State Teachers College at Kirksville are expected in Maryville Saturday for the Armistice Day game between the Bearcats and Kirksville. Campus leaders have invited the two girls' pep squads, the boys' group, and the band from Kirksville. It was requested that if possible for the Kirksville rooters to be in Maryville in time to take part in the NRA parade that morning.

While no word has been received as yet from Kirksville, it is not felt that the invitation will need be pressed as Maryville and Kirksville are old rivals on the football gridiron.

The local committee has gone ahead and made plans for a tea at Residence Hall following the game honoring the visiting rooters, and Saturday night a free dance for students of the two colleges will be held in the West Library.

If Kirksville loses the game Saturday, it not only will be its first loss this season, but the cane in possession of the College at Kirksville will have to be surrendered to the College here. Two years ago Maryville defeated Kirksville 7 to 0 and the cane was kept here a year. Last season Kirksville won from the Bearcats 6 to 0 and the cane was returned to Kirksville. And now Maryville wants the cane again.

A pep assembly was held at the College this morning. Kurby Bovard, chairman of pep activities for the week, presided. Harold Humphrey, William Yates, and Miss Eudora Smith gave pep talks. Songs and yells were additions.

WORK DDAY

At the regular Student Senate meeting Wednesday night, permission was given the Y. W. C. A. to have a "work day" on which day the members can do odd jobs to refinance the treasury. Complete details will probably be ready for announcement in next week's Missourian.

The Tattler would like to know why Hubbard, Bowen, and Porter were asked to get excuses for being late to speech class Friday. It is rumored that they were strolling up and down the hall serenading any one who wanted to listen.

Mr. Dieterich would like to know who passes the chewing gum around in three o'clock study hall.

NORTHWEST MISSOURI TEACHERS CREDIT UNION

ters. The word "improvident" has been properly applied to many school teachers.

It may be argued that "all teachers who have a right to credit resources can get credit at their banks at fair rates." This is, of course, not always the case. It has been estimated that between seven and fifteen per cent of the people have bank credit available in time of credit necessity. It is this fact—this failure of banks of credit to reach the masses of the people—that accounts for usury down through the centuries. It can no longer be argued, however, that school teachers have no resource in time of credit necessity except the private money lender. Teachers can and have organized credit unions. In Northwest Missouri the teachers have organized such a union both to supply themselves with an adequate plan for saving money and in order to protect themselves from usurious money lenders who are often utterly unscrupulous in their dealings.

Credit Union Has Passed Experimental Stage

The credit unions of school teachers has passed out of the experimental stage. At first, from necessity, they were trying with great difficulty and without much luck to get teachers at least to try a few credit union experiments, this period of trial is over. In 1932, there were twenty-six credit unions of school teachers operating in twenty-four large and small cities spread over eighteen states. Today, there are many more credit unions operating in many more states.

Some Cases Cited

In thinking of the credit union as a potential instrument of great service to school teachers everywhere and of the arguments against the plan, think also of the experience of credit unions of teachers now operating. If, for example, you doubt the ability of groups of teachers to manage their own financial affairs, give thought to the credit union of teachers at Kansas City, Missouri, which, in thirty-one months, accumulated resources of $81,695. If you have doubts as to whether teachers have loan problems, contemplate the amazing experience of the credit union of teachers at Detroit, Michigan, which according to President Mary N. Holland, since its organization seven years ago, has transacted in loans a total amount of approximately $1,640,000. "During the past months," says President Holland, "when banks were denying individual credit, Detroit Teachers Credit Union continued to serve its members. The growth of this organization has been steady and it now has a membership of 2,048. Bank failures have occurred with distressing frequency recently. The credit union movement, on the other hand, has prospered, thereby stressing the value of co-operative endeavor between those who have needs and those who possess the capacity of supplying them on the basis of mutual trust."

A Cooperative Society

The Northwest Missouri Teachers Credit Union is a co-operative society, organized within its own specific group, namely, public and state school employees, is self-managed, and operating under the supervision of the Commissioner of Securities in the Office of the Secretary of State of Missouri, and supplying its members with an excellent system for saving money, a system designed to make systematic saving possible and an eventually worth while substantial accumulation probable, a process that makes it possible for the members, with their own money and under their own management, to take care of their own short term credit problems at acceptable rates of interest. Not many smokers have seen a fine tobacco plant in full bloom, so we show you this picture. Only a few of these fine plants are permitted to flower and to produce seed. These carefully selected seeds reproduce the following year the "Cream of the Crop" for your Lucky Strike, for tobacco must be grown from seed each year. Qualifications for Membership
To belong to this newly organized Credit Union, one must be an employee of the public or state schools in the Northwest Teachers College District; must agree to buy one or more $5.00 shares, paying for them with cash or at the rate of not less than $1.00 per month per share; and must pay a twenty-five cent entrance fee.

This sounds like an insignificant obligation, the fulfillment of which would not greatly advance any economic welfare. It is purposely made easy to join, so that no one within the group

BASKETBALL SEASON OPENS EARLY THIS YEAR WITH PERU

CAPT-ELECT COWDEN WILL NOT BE WITH TEAM THIS YEAR—WILL PLAY WITH PIGS.

Five Lettermen Turn Out for the First Sessions of Practice Called by Coach Stalcup.

Twenty-six candidates for the Bearcat basketball team are reporting nightly to Coach Sparkle Stalcup at the gymnasium, and a number of others will join the squad at the end of the football season.

Although it is too early to get much of a line on the Bearcats' chances of retaining the M. I. A. A. title on which they have had a monopoly in recent years, Coach Stalcup, starting his first year as Henry Iba's successor, appears to have some promising material.

The Bearcats will play eight conference games, and about the same number of non-conference tilts, with the opening encounter scheduled for December 15 here against the Peru Teachers. This will be the Dad's Day game.

Five Lettermen Out.
The North Dakota Teachers, the Pittsburg Gorrillas, Maryville's bitter rival in the collegiate court world, and Rockhurst are among the other non-league opponents who will tangle with the Bearcats.

Five lettermen are out for the squad at present, and two more will be out when the football season closes. Lettermen now out are Joe O'Connor, Ma-loy, Ia.; Elmo Wright, Bethany, Okla.; Leo Prajsewater, New Point; Dale St. John, Portescue; and Hal Bird, Kansas City. Buford Jones, Britten, Okla.; Joe Benson and Bud Green, both of Independence, are the veterans who will join the squad late this month.

Among the most promising non-lettermen are Orville Johnson, Fillmore; Lester Ellward, Michigan; Brown of DesLoges; Austin of Bellvue; LeMasney, Rockford, Ill.; Adams, Forest City. Other candidates include Gardner, DesLoges; Barrett, Bovard and Miller, Maryville; Zakoura, Ossawatamie, Kan.; Saville, Atlantic, Ia.; Hayes, Nishnabotna; Gregory, Clearmont; M. Johnson, Fillmore; Huntsman, New Point; Kunkel, New Point; Meredith, Maryville; Huff, Rushville; Krattli, —; Marian, Maitland.

The candidates will be divided into two squads a little later, Coach Stalcup says, and one group will work out in the afternoon and the other at night.

The Schedule.
The schedule as it now stands follows:

Dec. 15—Peru Teachers, here.
Dec. 21—North Dakota Teachers (tentative) here.
Jan. 2—Rockhurst, here.
Jan. 4—Kirkville, there.
Jan. 6—Cape Girardeau, there.
Jan. 20—Pittsburg, here.
Jan. 23—Springfield, there.
Jan. 26—Warrensburg, there.
Feb. 2—Warrensburg, here.
Feb. 9—Kirkville, here.
Feb. 16—Springfield, here.
Feb. 19—Cape Girardeau, here.
Feb. 24—Pittsburg, there.

will be able consistently to say that he cannot join because it is too difficult. The credit union specializes in the saving problem of the member who can have the least and makes him welcome to membership.

No share certificates are issued. Instead, one receives a pass-book on joining, in which his share payments are entered.

The Credit Union is, therefore, a sane, sensible, convenient thrift plan; if it accomplishes nothing else, it would be doing a great service for its members. Money paid into this credit union on shares is like money paid into a savings bank; it may be withdrawn at anytime (the Board of Directors may require a 60-day advance notice, if deemed necessary), although the purpose of the credit union is to facilitate in every way, habits of sustained saving.

Personnel of Officers
This credit union is an organization of teachers from northwest Missouri, and each member has one vote and only one vote whether he has one share or a thousand shares. Further, the members elected their own management as follows:

Maryville High Defeats

Collige Hi, Score 26 to 5

The game yesterday was not what was fast ball passing on the part of the Maryville high school, but College Hi, due to the slick floor, could not get set to do any scoring. Martin of College Hi played a good game against the Maryville center, Cockayne, letting him get only two buckets to his usual 5 or 6 buckets. Workman of Maryville High was high point man of the game with four field goals. Thompson and Peery were the only ones able to score a basket with Martin tossing a free throw on the College Hi team.

Where's Your Pep?

Where's your pep? Why not let someone know that College Hi exists? At the basketball game at Maryville High we sat and watched their rooters and thought they certainly had a lot of pep. We can have just as much pep. Our yell leaders couldn't get enough support to lead only a few yells. They can't be the entire cheering section. They need to know that the student body is for them. Let's let them know it at our next game. Let's show the team that we can do our part.

This week's guess who is a girl from the senior class who is not at all hard to look at. She has mental ability and has a great deal of sex appeal. Those big brown eyes are little devils in disguise.

THE TATTTLER

At the Sheridan basketball game a very pretty brunette walked up to the College Hi cheering section (B. F. & V. C.) and slapped Verlyn, then walked away. Verlyn declares he never saw her before.—We wonder.

It has been rumored that Russel Hurley has taken up gardening at the Dr. Mehus home. The only thing is he plants things upside down. Poor Russel is so busy he doesn't know which end he is standing on.

Eula Bowen is getting to be quite a forgetful girl. The Tattler heard (it wasn't told to me; I only heard) that Eula has been getting her excuses confused. Was it Thursday or was it Friday, Eula? If you care to know more about this see either Eula or Mr. Westfall.

The Tattler wonders why Homer Black's face got so red when reading this column last week.

The speech class has been studying parliamentary procedure. Teacher—"What's most embarrassing about having the secretary read the results of the votes by ballot?"
Wilson—"your writing."

A teacher asked one of his students where Hollywood was located. The student hesitated a moment and scratched his head. Upon answering the question he plainly said that it was in Missouri.

Some more about Homer Black. Mr. Black asked who was absent from a certain table in study hall. "No one" was the answer.

Mr. B.—"Who?"
S. S.—"No one". (again).
Mr. B.—"Oh!"

He is also president of the British Universities' League of Nations Society. In February, 1933, as vice-president of the Union, he took part in a radio debate with Yale on the subject of war debts.

Mr. Morgan's home is Gallatin. He is president of the Speech Council, and the Mask and Gavel Club, a dramatics organization. Mr. Morgan is a winner of county forensic contests.
